About

This house is the oldest place of worship in the UK following the dissolution of the Monasteries by Henry VIII. It opened in 1686, when Catholicism was still illegal as a school for girls and a secret convent. It is still a convent today- and the most fascinating historic house in York. Don't miss the opportunity to explore while you're here!

Garden

Our beautiful garden is perfect for al-fresco dining, drinks in the sun or just a peaceful few moments away from the hustle and bustle of the city centre.

Meetings & Events

Host your meeting or special event with us! All meeting rooms have presentation facilities and superb in-house catering.

Exhibition

Open your eyes to secrecy & spies! Discover more about the incredible history of our house in our exhibition- admission applies.

Chapel

The Georgian chapel was built in secret and is known for its historic priest's hiding hole and the relic of Saint Margaret Clitherow. Mass takes place every Friday at 12noon- all are welcome.
